

Main regional hubs: Istanbul's record growth

- ▶ Two of the top hubs in Middle East “extended region”¹ are located in Arab Emirates
- ▶ In the last two years Istanbul has registered the most dynamic growth of international transits among top regional hubs

Notes: (1) For this analysis Turkey has been included in a “Middle East extended region” in order to assess its relevance as link between Asia and Europe (2) “Transits” includes all those passengers that do not stay one night at destination
