

European¹ countries could register stronger performance as international source markets in second half of 2013

Current bookings with departure in 2013 are 3% above 2012 levels

UK could be the rising outbound market for the next months, while Russia and Switzerland continue their positive trends

International departures¹ from top 10 European² source countries
(% Variation vs. Prev. year; Jul-Dec 2013)

Notes: (1) True departures for 1-31 Jul and issued bookings with departure date between Aug-Dec 2013 compared to equivalent 2012 information

(2) According to UNWTO definition of Europe; top 10 source markets ranked according to volume of international departures for Jan-Jun 2013

Methodology: Analysis based on international bookings excluding one way trips, transits and day trips. Database as of 31st July 2013